

God Being First in All Our Decisions

Some tough love here folks,

One candidate believes in marriage between a man and woman, life for unborn children, "under God" in our pledge, etc

The other candidate says he believes in man/woman marriage but won't enforce it, won't use his position to protect unborn children, and has a Democrat party of the mind that "under God" should not be in the pledge, schools, or anywhere else.

I don't remember an instance where Jesus told us to give up our morals to earn more money, or trade our values for money.

Paul said in 1 Corinthians 15:33 (NASB)

33Do not be deceived: "Bad [evil] company corrupts good morals."

before anyone accuses me of implying Kerry is evil.....you don't have to imply it to me because I'm saying he IS evil. Anyone that won't stand up for unborn children is evil.

evil - adj. 1. morally bad or wrong; wicked and malevolent: an evil tyrant.

n. 2a. Something that is morally bad or wrong; wickedness; sin: - Reader's digest Illustrated Encyclopedia Dictionary

Matthew 1:18Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost.

Babies are children in the womb (unborn) and are not to be killed. John Kerry and most of the Democrat party supports abortion (killing of unborn children, pulling a baby half way out of the womb, inserting a needle into the brain and sucking it all out, then pulling out the baby and throwing it into a trash can) THIS POINT ALONE SHOULD TELL YOU WHO NOT TO VOTE FOR!!!

oh, but there's more:

Homosexuality:

verses against right in front of me – not all inclusive:

Rom 1:26

I Cor 6:9

I Tim 1:9

Jude 7 Even as Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

You can look up the previous scriptures.

Now about the pocketbook thing:

Matt 22:17 Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto Caesar, or not? 18 But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites? 19 Show me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a penny. 20 And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? 21 They say unto him, Caesar's. Then saith he unto them, Render therefore unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's; and unto God the things that are God's.

parallel accounts Mk 12:14 and Lk 20:22

Luke 2:1 says Joseph went up to pay his taxes

1 And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed. ²(And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.) ³And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city. ⁴And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David:) ⁵To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child.

I hate to say it, but if you are currently in the 28% tax bracket and government decides to tax you at a 65% rate, we would have to comply until the law was changed.

Morals trump the pocketbook. In case I've not been clear: abortion and homosexuality are moral issues and there is a CLEAR distinction between the two candidates for the presidency.

Kerry and the Democrat party constantly use class warfare (race vs. race) to create strife and make one think they are getting the short end of the stick – this ought not to be and does not show good moral character. I bring this up because Kerry says they will just tax the "rich" but the plan he has put forth will have to trickle down to the middle class because he cannot raise enough revenue from the rich. They try to create strife between seniors and baby boomers (gen-x) about social security. Once again, not a good moral characteristic.

Now, to the notion that you can't legislate morality – that one really gets the hair of my neck to stand up:

This nation was founded on Christian principles (not saying all the men were Christians) and Christians especially should recognize this fact. So for 228 years we have been legislating morality and been doing pretty good. It's when we get away from God's principles that society starts eroding into the mess we are getting into now (1973 Roe vs. Wade), 1973 American Psychiatric Association infiltrated by homosexual activists to get the definition changed.

"The homosexual rights movement is not a cause based on science, social justice, or fairness toward a "persecuted minority." Rather, it is the work of a devious and clandestine fifth column that seeks to undermine the moral values in place in America since the founding of the Republic. Its beginnings can be traced to the infamous 1973 decision made by the American Psychiatric Association (APA) to strike homosexuality from the officially approved list of psychiatric illnesses.

From Illness to Interest Group

Prior to the APA decision, homosexual persons were considered to be emotionally disturbed and lacking in capacity to develop normal heterosexual relations. In his book, Homosexuality and the Politics of Truth, psychiatrist Jeffrey Satinover discusses how this change came about:

How did this occur? Normally a scientific consensus is reached over the course of many years, resulting from the accumulated weight of many properly designed studies. But in the case of homosexuality, scientific research has only now just begun (c.1996), years after the question was decided...The APA vote to normalize homosexuality was driven by politics, not science. Even sympathizers acknowledged this...the leadership of a homosexual faction within the APA planned [in 1970] a "systematic effort to disrupt the annual meetings of the American Psychiatric Association".

The APA decision, therefore, was not based on rigorous scientific discovery, but on hardball backroom politics engineered by a cabal of homosexual activists who pushed their agenda through intimidation and deception. Other medical professional organizations meekly fell in line and sodomy suddenly became an officially acknowledged alternative lifestyle whose practitioners were considered to be born with unalterable homosexual attractions. Thus, any therapy employed by a psychiatrist or psychologist intended to change a person's sexual orientation was declared to be unethical." I could list more, but I hope this is sufficient to change your mind if you were going to vote for a Democrat tha believes in abortion and homosexuality (which John Kerry does, or say he doesn't, but his vote says he does - actions speak louder than words).
