The Doctrine

Christianity, among other things, is a faith predominantly centered around freedom. This is a loaded term in our context, so how might the New Testament hope for freedom differ to our understanding?

1) Freedom – 5.1

Define "freedom".

Explain how Christ set us free from each of the following

- Sin -
- Death -
- Satan -

2) Freedom from Law – 5.2-4

What are the consequences of accepting circumcision and the yoke of the law?

- Christ is no longer of _____.
- We must obey the _____ law.
- We can lose our _____.

3) Freedom to Love – 5.5-6

The most unique thing about Christian freedom is that it's not just freedom from, but freedom for – for what?

How does the story in Luke 13.10-17 (p.872) illustrate the problem in Paul's letter?
